

If Sinclair persists in running the anti-Kerry program as a public service documentary, they should be ordered to show the pro-Kerry documentary under the same conditions. This is a matter of public rights and a violation of national FCC policy.